

Report of Seminar on Anti-Ragging

Date: 03 / 10 /2018

The primary objective of the Anti-Ragging Workshop was to create awareness among students, faculty, and staff about the detrimental effects of ragging and to emphasize the importance of fostering a safe and respectful campus environment.

Dr. S S. Chaudhari, Head Dept. of Marathi was the speaker of Seminar & counseling session. In his speech he explained about the Concept of Ragging, Consequences of Ragging and the Provision of Anti- Ragging Act and empowering participants with knowledge about their rights and responsibilities. Students were encouraged to take a pledge, against ragging and promote a culture of kindness and camaraderie.

The Coordinator of Anti Ragging Committee Dr. A G Sonawane expressing in his views said that, Ragging has no place in our society, let alone in our educational institutions, which should serve as safe havens for intellectual growth and personal development. It is a stain on the reputation of our educational system and a violation of the fundamental rights of students. The incidence of ragging occurred mostly in Hostel, those students who faced with ragging they feel feared to come at college and didn't wish to attend the classes. Sometime due to ragging Student's educational carrier ruined.

Dr. R. R. Vasave gave the introduction of speaker and opening remarks of Seminar. At the end of the program Prof Aadesh Jain extended vote of thanks and gratitude to all the participants, speakers, and organizers, who contributed to the success of the Anti-Ragging Workshop
